Vincent J. Naimoli

Managing General Partner and Chief Executive Officer

The man who secured Tampa Bay's long-awaited Major League Baseball franchise on March 9, 1995, continues to work as hard as anyone to build a championship team.

Taking the torch from a long line of community leaders, in 1991 Naimoli accepted the challenge of bringing the National Pastime to the region. Summoning the grit and problem-solving savvy that took him from a humble start in Paterson, N.J., to an NROTC scholarship at Notre Dame, two master's degrees, the engineering and business worlds, and legendary status as a corporate turnaround specialist, he rallied civic and financial backers to the baseball cause. Naimoli had the ticket-buying public behind him, too, and on March 31, 1998, a $250-million-a-year entity began play at Tropicana Field.

Naimoli forged a naming-rights deal with Tropicana Products that will enable St. Petersburg to receive payments of more than $13 million over the life of the contract, and he and fellow Rays owners paid for improvements at The Trop and the club's spring stadium, Florida Power Park, Home of Al Lang Field. He insisted that Tropicana Field's design reflect baseball traditions, among them asymmetrical outfield dimensions, seats close to the action, and dirt base paths. Ever the engineer, he let innovation enhance that traditional feel by arranging the purchase of a revolutionary grasslike playing surface, FieldTurf, for the air-conditioned dome before the 2000 season, earning unanimous approval from the league, players, fans and media. Old-time details blend with modern comforts to create a stadium ranked second in the majors by a group of fans who watched games at every one on their 30 Ballpark Millennium Tour.

The team itself experienced growing pains and injury pains during the first four seasons, but by the start of Year 4 Baseball America ranked the Devil Rays sixth among 30 organizations in terms of developing major league prospects. Many of the prospects in the minors when Baseball America conducted its survey were impact big leaguers by season's end. Persevering under Naimoli's leadership, the young Rays went 24-23 over the final 47 games of 2001.

While building a franchise from within, Naimoli also has focused on the game's welfare. In addition to serving on MLB committees, he was named in January 1999 to the Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics, whose recommendations addressed longstanding problems.

As CEO of Anchor Industries International, Naimoli was voted 1995 Florida Entrepreneur of the Year in the "turnaround" category. In 1999 he joined First Lady Hillary Clinton, Senator John Glenn and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court William Rehnquist in receiving the Ellis Island Medal of Honor from the National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations. He also has served on financial and athletic committees at alma mater Notre Dame, chaired the University of Tampa Board of Trustees, and serves on the board at Fairleigh Dickinson University, where he earned an M.B.A. magna cum laude before completing Harvard Business School's advanced management program in 1974. In the community, Naimoli has received numerous honors for service, including the first Bridging the Bay Award, in 1996.

One of four children of a second-generation Italian immigrant who worked for the New York subway system and became a self-taught stationary engineer, Naimoli graduated from Notre Dame in 1959 out of Paterson Central High School. He still attends Fighting Irish football games with his wife, Lenda, who retired as an Eastern Airlines flight attendant after 24 years and who has an identical twin, Mrs. J.E. (Glenda) Young. He has four daughters — Christine, an Arizona State graduate; Tory Ann Jarvis, Stephens College and Kellogg Graduate School alumna; Alyson, a Notre Dame graduate; and Lindsey, currently matriculating at Notre Dame — and three Jarvis grandchildren: Jack Burke, Matthew Vincent and William Joseph.

Chief Operating Officer

John McHale Jr. became the Devil Rays' chief operating officer on May 22, 2001, arriving from the Detroit Tigers with a reputation for building.

McHale helped build another young franchise: the expansion Colorado Rockies. He helped build stadiums: Coors Field in Denver and Comerica Park in Detroit. In Tampa Bay, McHale took charge of building fan support and a successful team. He arrived with a well-articulated philosophy and a rapport with the team's leadership, having worked with Devil Rays Managing General Partner Vince Naimoli on the Commissioner's Blue Ribbon Panel on Baseball Economics and Major League Baseball Enterprises.

McHale had been Tigers president and chief executive officer since Jan. 11, 1995, and a close observer of the baseball business since childhood. His father, John J. McHale, played first base with Detroit for parts of five seasons from 1943 to 1948. The elder McHale joined the Tigers' front office upon his retirement as a player and was named general manager in 1957. He spent 30 years as an executive for the Tigers, Major League Baseball, the Milwaukee Braves and the Montreal Expos.

Before his six-plus years with Detroit, a 1901 American League charter club, John McHale Jr. served more than three years as executive vice president of the Rockies, who took the field in the National League in 1993 and became one of baseball's preeminent regional franchises. In 1989, Colorado Gov. Roy R. Romer named him chairman of the board of the Denver Major League Baseball Stadium District, which directed development of Coors Field. McHale practiced law in Denver from 1981 to 1991, joining the Rockies in October of '91, four months after the founding of the franchise.

McHale, recently elected to the board of trustees at St. Anthony's Hospital of St. Petersburg, earned a bachelor's degree in English in 1971 from the University of Notre Dame, where he played defensive end and linebacker on the football team. Before earning law degrees from Boston College in 1975 and Georgetown University in 1982, he had on-the-job training in baseball. He was current Rays equipment manager Carlos Ledezma's intern with a Montreal Expos Triple-A affiliate, the Peninsula (Va.) Whips, in 1972.

John and his wife, Sally, have three children: Duncan (12), Willy (11) and Frances (8).

Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager

Chuck LaMar begins his eighth season as the Devil Rays' senior vice president of baseball operations and general manager.

Throughout his career, which he began as a scouting supervisor for the Cincinnati Reds in 1985, LaMar always has placed heavy emphasis on scouting and player development. That fact never has been more evident than now, as the Rays minor league system recently was called one of the deepest in the American League by Baseball America — a view shared by many others in and around the game.

LaMar has assembled an experienced and respected baseball operations staff and has led it through six amateur drafts in addition to the expansion draft. The fruits of that labor include Josh Hamilton, the USA Today 2000 Minor League Player of the Year; International League MVP Toby Hall; 2001 first-round pick Dewon Brazelton, one of the top amateur players in the nation in 2001; World Cup standout Carl Crawford; and left-handed pitcher Joe Kennedy, the Rays' eighth-round pick in the 1998 draft and one of the top rookies in the AL last season.

LaMar's trades have brought youthful prospects, including right-handed pitcher Jesus Colome, a flame-throwing right-hander who held opposing batters to a .208 average in 2001, fourth among American League rookies; left-handed pitcher Nick Bierbrodt, who went 3-1 in six starts at Tropicana Field last season as a rookie; 1998 first-round draft pick Jason Tyner, Rays club leader with 31 stolen bases last season; and second baseman Brent Abernathy, whose .270 batting average was third among AL rookies in 2001.

As testament to his scouting acumen, LaMar served on USA Baseball's selection committee for the 1999 Pan Am Games, the selection committee for the 2000 United States Olympic gold-medal team, and the advisory committee for the 2000 Major League Futures All-Star Game.

Chuck has been a leader in the community as well. The Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament, contested the past four Novembers in the waters off St. Petersburg, has raised more than $500,000 for the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation. LaMar has been involved in a number of other local charities, including the YMCA, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Clearwater for Youth and the Suncoast Children's Dream Fund.

LaMar came to the Rays shortly after the franchise's founding in 1995, following five years in Atlanta as director of scouting and player development and then assistant general manager for player personnel. With the Braves, LaMar helped oversee a minor league system that national publications repeatedly ranked No. 1, and he helped implement baseball's first minority intern program in the areas of scouting and player development. With Tampa Bay in 1996, he established the Career Initiative Program, which promotes diversity by exposing members of minority groups to the player development, scouting and conditioning aspects of baseball.

LaMar started his major league career in 1985 as a scouting supervisor with the Reds, helping build a world champion as he later did with the Braves. He directed Pittsburgh's minor league operations in 1989 and 1990, and the Pirates won their last three division crowns in 1990-92.

The native of Twin Falls, Idaho, captained three sports at Madison High School in Houston, Texas. He was baseball captain at Texas Christian, leading TCU in Southwest Conference hitting in 1977, graduating in '78. He taught and coached at St. Thomas High in Houston, then served as an assistant coach at Indiana and head coach at Mary Hardin-Baylor, in Belton, Texas.

Three members of Chuck's family played minor league ball: grandfather Charles Hart LaMar, father Charles William LaMar, and younger brother Danny, a first-round draft choice of the Reds in 1979. Chuck, wife Cheryl and Sarah (19), Emily (17) and Charlie (9) reside in Clearwater.

RAYS IN THE COMMUNITY

The mission of the Rays of Hope Foundation is to assist the agencies and charitable causes dedicated to the education and welfare of the citizens of the Tampa Bay area, particularly children.

In 2001, the Devil Rays provided in-kind donations to more than 700 area charities and were responsible for raising $1.5 million for Tampa Bay's charitable causes.

Jared Sandberg was one of the first in line to give blood at the Florida Blood Services drive Sept. 12.

Devil Rays bench coach Billy Hatcher helps prepare gift baskets for the needy at Metropolitan Ministries in Tampa.

Much of that charity was conducted through the Rays of Hope Foundation. The Foundation donated $10,000 each to the Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) programs in Tampa and St. Petersburg and made similar donations to the foundation's four designated charities: the St. Petersburg YMCA, the Pinellas County Education Foundation, the Hillsborough Education Foundation and the Children's Home Society.

Volume Services America once again saw to it that local charities were given the opportunity to raise money at Devil Rays home games by manning the concession stands, a program that has brought approximately $3.8 million to Tampa Bay-area charitable organizations in the Rays' four seasons. That figure was approximately $800,000 in 2001.

Raymond, the Rays' furry blue mascot, made 238 free appearances in the community, including nearly 100 at elementary and middle schools. During Raymond's visits, students join Raymond's DREAM Team and pledge to support a drug-free environment. The Rays hosted their first Grand Slam Gala in March to benefit the Rays of Hope Foundation. Attended by all Rays players and coaches, the event raised more than $30,000.

The Shirts Off Our Backs promotion, in which fans buy chances to win the game-worn uniform tops of each player following the last home game of the season, has brought the Muscular Dystrophy Association more than $66,000 the past four years. The Rays will gladly donate the uniforms again in 2002 at Shirts Off Our Backs Day on Sept. 22, date of the Tropicana Field finale against Toronto.

Former Rays pitcher Tony Saunders presents the first Tony Saunders Courage Award to Wharton High School swimmer John Clewis on Opening Night 2001.

The annual Devil Rays community relations caravans made more than 25 stops in the Tampa Bay area Feb. 9-15 of this year. Players, broadcasters, front office staff and Raymond visited fans throughout the region at locations such as the Lakeland Medical Center, All Children's Hospital in St. Petersburg, MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa, Manatee Memorial Hospital, and Alta Vista Elementary School in Sarasota.

In 2001, the Devil Rays initiated the Tony Saunders Courage Award for a local student-athlete who best exemplifies the courage, character, competitive desire and fighting spirit of the former Devil Rays pitcher. Student-athletes who have either demonstrated extraordinary effort or excelled in their sport while overcoming adversity merit consideration. The winner receives a $2,500 scholarship from the Rays of Hope Foundation. Last year's winner was John Clewis, a member of Tampa's Wharton High School swim team.

Chuck LaMar helps a young contestant at the Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament, held each November off St. Petersburg. The tournament has raised more than $500,000 for the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation.

Also in 2001, the Wives of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays presented a check for $66,100 to the ALS Association to fight Lou Gehrig's Disease — the proceeds from their Aug. 26 celebrity dinner at which Devil Rays players served as waiters.

The Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament held for the past four years off St. Petersburg has raised more than $500,000 for the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation. LaMar has been involved in a number of other local charities, including the YMCA, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Clearwater for Youth and the Suncoast Children's Dream Fund.

For the second consecutive year, Greg Vaughn hosted An Evening of Jazz to benefit the St. Petersburg Boys & Girls Clubs. The outfielder also presented a personal check to Boys & Girls Clubs officials that night. For the fourth consecutive year, the Rays brought more than a dozen players to Winter Haven in March for a fundraiser for All Saints Academy. On June 23, the Rays and the U.S. Postal Service had a baseball equipment drive to benefit the Police Athletic League, the St. Petersburg RBI League, the Boys & Girls Clubs of St. Petersburg and the YMCA.

Every quarter, Rays employees spend a day helping in the community. Here they clean up the Joshua House in Tampa.

The Rays will once again offer an internship through the Boys & Girls Clubs. In addition to receiving a stipend from the club, the intern will perform game-day assignments for the Devil Rays public relations office.

Several annual Rays events benefit the less fortunate as well as the young. The team again hosted a Thanksgiving dinner for the needy and a holiday party for kids, both at Tropicana Field. The Rays held their annual breakfast for Little Leaguers in St. Petersburg in conjunction with the Festival of States. In August, the Rays and Southwest Airlines hosted nine children from the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast on a day trip to Chicago to catch the game against the White Sox.

Russ Johnson has fun at the Jasmine Courts Boys & Girls Club of Clearwater.

The Devil Rays and Cuesta-Rey Cigars hosted their annual Big Brothers/Big Sisters fundraiser at J.C. Newman's Cuesta-Rey Cigar Bar. The event has raised more than $20,000 over the past four years. Kane's Furniture and the Rays teamed up to donate more than $10,000 to All Children's Hospital based on the number of doubles the Rays hit in 2001. Lykes and the Rays joined forces to raise $103,250 for the Children's Dream Fund over the past three years. Lykes has donated $50 for every Rays RBI each season.

The Rays of Hope Foundation sponsored essay contests in Pinellas and Hillsborough counties during the 2001 season. Jared Larson, a fourth-grade student from Ozona Elementary School of Palm Harbor, was the winner in Pinellas. Ivan Pesaresi, an eighth-grade student at Brandon's Progress Village School of the Arts, took first place in Hillsborough County. Each received a number of prizes, including a $500 savings bond. Both students' schools received $1,000 from the Rays of Hope.

The Rays will add several new initiatives this year, including reading incentive programs in both Hillsborough and Pinellas counties. In addition, the Rays were selected to host Major League Baseball's RBI Regional Tournament in July at the Raymond Naimoli Complex, their spring camp in St. Petersburg.

Nick Bierbrodt has an enthusiastic class at Southside Fundamental Middle School during November's Great American Teach-In.

Holiday help: Tanyon Sturtze joins Doug Creek in serving the homeless at the club's annual Thanksgiving dinner at Tropicana Field, then assists with Christmas tree delivery — and kids — in the St. Pete YMCA's Neighbor to Neighbor program.

The Devil Rays organization also responded quickly and compassionately in times of crisis. Following the tragedies of September 11 in New York, Washington and Pennsylvania, the Devil Rays players, coaches, and top front office staff donated a day's pay to the Disaster Relief Fund. All told, the donation came to more than $225,000. On September 12, the Rays and Florida Blood Services hosted a blood drive at Tropicana Field. More than a thousand of Tampa Bay area citizens responded, including a number of the Devil Rays. In their first game back at Tropicana Field on September 21, the Rays invited all retired and active military personnel, fire and rescue workers, police officers and EMS workers to the game. Many were involved in an emotional pre-game tribute to the victims of the tragedies.

On August 23, Rays Managing General Partner Vince Naimoli presented Cal Ripken Jr. with a check for $5,000 to the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation from the Rays of Hope Foundation.

And on the local front, on July 21 the Rays held Law Enforcement Appreciation Day. For every full priced ticket sold to the Rays-Texas Rangers game that day, the Rays donated $2 to the Gold Shield Foundation, dedicated to aiding the families of slain police officers. The Rays donation was made in the memory of Tampa police officer Lois Marrero who was killed in the line of duty two weeks earlier. The Rays donation came to over $24,452.

The Rays of Hope Foundation also contributed $5,000 to the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation on August 23, Cal Jr.'s last visit to Tropicana Field.

The infield dirt was decorated with a stars and stripes design on September 21, the Rays first game at home following the tragedies.

Bagpipes played out "Amazing Grace" at Tropicana Field as the Tampa Bay community mourned the loss of Tampa Police Officer Lois Marrero at Law Enforcement Appreciation Day on July 21.

Local firefighters, EMS workers, fire and rescue workers and police lined the field when the Rays resumed play following the September 11 tragedies. They were all part of an emotional pre-game tribute on September 21.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm diagnosis.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of the knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated by excessive throwing.

RAYSVISION

"RaysVision" is the entertainment presentation Devil Rays fans experience when they visit Tropicana Field. The RaysVision show, as produced by the Event Productions Department, is comprised of four distinct elements: video, matrix, audio and live entertainment.

Situated in right field at the Trop is a Mitsubishi Mark IIIHB Diamond Vision screen measuring 24' x 32'. Installed in 1998, this crisp and colorful video display showcases a multitude of in-game entertainment, flashy graphics, music videos, instant replays, interactive quizzes and games, and most importantly, live shots of the fans. Two 9' x 9' video walls in each food court also display the RaysVision video show as well as the game broadcast. In addition to the in-game production, the RaysVision video crew also produces and edits all TBDR television and video projects.

Flanking the RaysVision are two Daktronics monochrome matrix displays, each measuring 16' x 30'. Beyond a simple linescore, these versatile matrix displays present a variety of statistics, updates, messages, graphics, entertaining animations, fan birthdays and special occasions. In 1999 & 2000, the RaysVision matrix show captured the IDEA Golden Matrix Award for Best Overall Matrix Display. These displays are supported by 16 out of town scoreboards, 2 lineup displays, 4 tier level auxiliary matrix screens, and a Hi-Tech color matrix display in centerfield street. Additionally, a 3.5' x 37' Daktronics green matrix board appears in center field. Named after long-time Bay Area baseball supporter Jack Lake, this display is specifically dedicated to presenting current and upcoming Rays community related and information.

Tropicana Field's sound system is the original speaker system that was installed with the Florida Sun Coast Dome in 1990. It has been supplemented with amplification and distribution equipment since the Devil Rays took over the management of the facility, along with state-of-the-art digital playback equipment. In addition to playing the variety of music, effects and announcements at a Devil Rays game, all Rays promotional radio commercials are recorded and edited in our audio control room.

At each game since the Rays first took the field on March 31, 1998, our fans have been treated to a live performance of the National Anthem(s). In keeping with our community spirit, many of these performances have been by local talent...a majority of which are children. The first ever performance of the anthem was delivered by Ms. Belinda Womack, accompanied by a 75 person choir that consisted of members from three churches that were relocated when construction began on The Florida Sun Coast Dome in the late 1980's.

Additionally, our Nation's colors are presented at each event by a local honor guard from a variety of groups including the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Coast Guard, College and High School ROTC units, Veteran and Civic Associations, Fire and Police Departments, and, the Boys and Girl Scouts of America.

Also at most games, many young fans are surprised on the spot and invited to: present the first game ball, deliver a surprise ceremonial first pitch, take the field to dance with Raymond, take part in interactive contests, or even sing "Take Me Out To The Ballgame".

New in 2002, the RaysVision crew has developed, designed and produced the team's advertising campaign "Heart & Hustle" completely in-house. This new graphics wing is also responsible for most of the design and print projects as they pertain to the team and the facility.

DIRT BASEPATHS

Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature Astroturf and dirt base paths. The other four current major league parks with artificial turf have only dirt cutouts around the bases and at the pitcher's mound. Only four other all-Astroturf stadia have ever featured dirt base paths: Astrodome (1966-71); San Francisco's Candlestick in 1971, Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s and the most recent, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-76). Chicago's Comiskey Park had dirt basepaths with an Astroturf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s

X-Ray Report

John switched numbers from 23 to 6 when he returned off the disabled list June 20, 1998. Number 6 has been his favorite since Little League, but he had been unable to wear it. In Boston, Tony Pena wore it. In Detroit it was retired to Al Kaline and in San Diego it was retired to Steve Garvey.

2001 Season

- One of the original Rays, he and Fred McGriff are the only Rays to start all four TB openers.
- Appeared in 72 games, his fewest games in a big league season since 1994 when he played in 34 for the Tigers.
- Started 38 of TB's first 48 games and batted .260 (33/127)...started only 31 of the remaining 114 while hitting .215 (26-121).
- Did not play after Sep 2, sidelined with a herniated disc in his neck.
- In his last game Sep 2 @ OAK he broke up Mark Mulder's perfect game, doubling with 2 out in the 5th inning (Mulder had retired the first 14 Rays)...also had the Rays' lone hit June 16 @ FLA (Penny) in an 11-0 TB loss...(For more on this topic, see page xx.)
- Ended the game Aug. 12 at the Trop vs. MIN with a walk-off HR in the 12th inning off Latroy Hawkins to give TB the 4-3 win...It was the 7th walk-off HR in team history, 2nd by Flaherty, almost a year to the date - Aug. 13, 2000 vs. CWS (Howry).
- Hit .214 in April (15/70) after getting off to the best start of his career April 2000 (.348, 24/69).
- Swiped his lone base Sep 1 vs. OAK...was his first since Sep 23, 1997 for SD at LA - 8th of career.
- Committed 6 errors on the season...had 5 all of 2000 and 15 total in his Devil Ray career entering 2001.
- Tied his career high May 12 @ CLE with 4 hits...game hiked his avg. more than 30 points from .217 to .250...only other time he did it was nearly 6 years ago to the day - 5/14/95 @ TEX.
- Tripled July 20 vs. TEX, the 3rd of his ML career, first since Aug. 28, 1997 for SD vs. ANA (1,423 days in between)...collected 3 RBI in the game, the first time in 106 games a Rays catcher had that many RBI in a game.
- Hit the GW HR July 21 vs. TEX in the 8th snapping a 1-1 tie - was his first HR in 149 AB (4/15 @ BAL) which also broke a tie.
- Caught his first two runners of the season attempting to steal, then just 13-of-70 (.186) the rest of the season.

2000

- Finished the season with 10 HR, his 4th season of 10+ homers...career best is 14 set in 1999...had 3 roundtrippers in his last 30 AB.
- Got off to the best start of his career...hit a team-best .348 (24/69) for April (hit just .243, 79/325) the rest of the season...brought a .218 career avg. into April - his worst month.
- Hit safely in 14 of his first 16 games with 8 multi-hit games...had multi-hit efforts in 5 of his first 6 games to begin the season.
- Tied his career high 4/4 @ MIN with 5 RBI (also May 17, '99 @ Texas), accounting for all the Rays runs in a 6-5 Rays defeat.
- His 24 April hits were his most ever in April and 2 shy of his most in a month as a Ray (26-July '99)...his most hits ever in one month is 34 in July of '96 while with San Diego.

CAREER INITIATIVE PROGRAM

The Devil Rays Career Initiative Program, introduced in 1996 by Devil Rays Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Chuck LaMar, promotes social diversity in professional baseball and gives members of minority groups exposure to the scouting, player development and conditioning aspects of the major league game. Each October for two weeks during the Rays' instructional league camp, the 5-6 CIP participants receive hands-on instruction while getting paid. Ten graduates of the program have landed jobs including Charles Scott, one of the members of the CIP's inaugural class in 1996, who landed a job with the Rays as the team's Area Scout in Northern California and is now the Arizona Diamondbacks' West Coast Supervisor. Fellow CIP graduate Kevin Bootay landed a scouting job with the Minnesota Twins. A pair of 2001 participants, Martin Stringer and Ronnie Jones, were hired by the Rays as associate scouts. Fellow CIP classmate Mario Valenzuela was tabbed as the Rays scout in Mexico. Dwight Smith, the Rays' minor league base running and outfield coordinator, is a 1999 graduate of the CIP.

- His 5-12 (.294) record tied with Albie Lopez and ANA Pat Rapp for the 2nd-lowest winning percentage in the AL behind Bryan Rekar (3-13, .188).
- Set a Rays record with 30 home runs surrendered (prev. 26 by Esteban Yan in 2000)...ranked 3rd in the AL behind Rick Helling (38) and Eric Milton (35)...allowed 19 of the 30 on the road, tying Milton for second most behind Helling's 25 in the AL.
- Finished 10th among AL hurlers with 111 runs allowed and 7th with 105 earned runs allowed.
- Surrendered a .352 (44/125) average with runners in scoring position, highest among league pitchers (min. 150 plate appearances)...also yielded the highest on-base percentage to hitters leading off an inning at .421 (64/152).
- Began the season in the Rays rotation as he made his second straight Opening Day roster...started 6 games going 2-3 with a 5.93 ERA (30.1-IP/20-ER)...moved to the bullpen following his start May 2 @ BAL - was replaced by Tanyon Sturtze in the rotation...made 2 relief appearances, the first of his professional career, and surrendered 12 runs on 10 hits and 2 walks in 1.2 innings...was optioned to AAA following his last outing May 9 vs. BAL when he allowed 6 runs in 0.2 recording the 8-6 defeat...Was optioned almost the same time in 2000.
- Overall was 2-4 with a 9.00 ERA (32.0-IP/32-ER) before the option (8G/6GS).

- On July 26 in a 5-3 loss at Anaheim he recorded the shortest outing of his career and the shortest by a Devil Ray (excluding an injury) since June 21, 2000 (Esteban Yan at Seattle, also 1 IP)...his line: IP-1+, H-5, R-5, ER-5, BB-1, SO-2, HR-4...threw only 37 pitches...allowed 3 consecutive home runs to Troy Glaus, Darin Esrtad and Garret Anderson in the first inning and a another to Bengie Molina leading off the 2nd - 4 home runs over a span of 8 hitters, most HR allowed by a TB pitcher in a game in 2001...became the 2nd Rays pitcher to give up 3 consecutve home runs joining Bobby Witt who did it at Texas on May 19, 1999.
- Had allowed just 2 earned runs in 23.1 career innings against the Angels prior to that start.
- Lost 12-5 @ Yankee Stadium on Aug. 16...surrendered a first-inning 3-run HR to David Justice and a grand slam to Paul O'Neill the following inning...his line: 5.2-IP, 9-H, 11-R, 10-ER, 3-BB, 6-SO - tied a club record for most runs allowed (Julio Santana @ TOR 4/15/99) and was one shy of mark for ER allowed (Santana, same start).
- Fared much better at home (4-5, 5.14, 14G/12GS, .265 opp avg.) than on the road (1-7, 8.28, 14GS, .304) in 2001.

Outright waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor leauge club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

- Started only 2 of the first 15 games after his recall from Durham...Began starting regularly June 3 and batted .335 (65-194) while starting 44 of 56 games through August 5 raising his average to .322...Batted .234 (44-188) the rest of the season.
- Only 3 players in the majors stole more bases after the All-Star Break (see below)... Had the AL's 9th best stolen base success rate (83.8, 31 of 37), but was thrown out only twice in 26 tries after the All-Star Break.

2001 Season

- Took over as Rays closer from Roberto Hernandez (traded during the off-season), who owned 101 of TB's 111 saves the club's first three seasons.
- Appeared in 54 games, finishing 51, tied for 9th most games finished in the AL.
- Finished with 22 saves (in 31 opportunites)...owned just one major league save before 2001, that coming July 26, 1998 vs. OAK.
- His 9 blown saves tied OAK Jason Isringhausen and MIN LaTroy Hawkins for most in the AL.
- His .710 save percentage led only Todd Jones (.619, 13/21) who had the lowest among AL relievers with at least 20 save opportunities.
- Converted his last 6 saves (best streak of the season) after a stretch of 4 blown saves in 8 chances from July 28-Aug. 12...went 5-for-5 to start the year.
- First blown save was May 16 @ KC - as he entered in the 8th with a 5-4 lead, got out of that frame, then a surrendered season-high 5 runs in the 9th inning (including a walk-off grand slam by Joe Randa) to take the 9-5 defeat...outing jumped his ERA from 3.68 to 6.46.
- Had just one save opportunity from Aug. 13 to Sep 20 (28 games) - saved 8-6 win Sep 1 vs. OAK.
- Surrendered just 1.59 walks per nine innings (11/62.1), tied with SEA Arthur Rhodes for 5th best among AL relievers...BAL Buddy Groom led at 1.23.
- Allowed runs in 13 of his 54 outings (24%)...40 of his outings were one inning or less (74%).
- When throwing 2.0+ innings: 2-2-2, 11-G, 18.0-IP, 21-H, 10-R/5-ER, 2.50 ERA.
- Tossed a season-most 2.2 innings in his final season appearance, Oct 6 vs. NYY, preserving the 5-2 win, the Rays' last victory of the season.
- His first 13 games of the season he entered with bases empty.
- Pitched to a 1.07 ERA over his last 13 appearances from Aug. 22 (16.2-IP, 12-H, 2-ER, 2-BB, 21 SO, 6 SV) plummeting his ERA to a season-low 3.90...allowed runs in just one game over that stretch (Sep 3 @ SEA).
- Also did not allow a HR in those final 13 appearances after surrendering dingers in 4 straight games...in fact, from Aug. 1-18 had allowed 6 HR in a 36-batter span (7G)...had allowed only 2 HR to his previous 266 batters faced before that - dating back to August 3, 2000.
- Was DL'd from June 22 to July 12 (right shoulder inflammation)...missed 17 games...made a pair of rehab starts for AA Orlando.

RAYS VS. CLEMENS—The Rays handed 20-game winner Roger Clemens (20-3) two of his 3 losses and were one out from handing still another loss (Yankees rallied with 2 outs in the 9th on August 9 to win 3-2)...The last time an AL team lost 100 games and beat a 20-game winner twice was the 1991 Cleveland Indians who lost 105 games but beat Detroit's Bill Gullickson (20-9) twice.

STURTZE vs. YANKEES—Tampa Bay's Tanyon Sturtze and Toronto's Esteban Loiaza were the only two pitchers to beat the AL Champion Yankees 3 times in 2001.

RAYS OFFENSE: SEEING DOUBLE—The Rays hit at least one double in each of their final 45 games of the season...In the last 5 years, there have been only 2 longer streaks in the majors: 75 games by Cleveland in 1996 and 51 by Atlanta in 1999...The Rays hit 111 doubles over those games – easily the most in the majors over that span...How torrid a pace is that? If they were to keep that up over a full season, they would finish with exactly 400 doubles. The current major league record for most doubles in a season is 373...The Rays finished with a club record 311 and shattered the old club mark of 272 (set in 1999)...Tampa Bay was the only team in the majors to get 30 or more doubles out of all nine positions in the batting order...The Rays finished in the bottom three in the AL in virtually every offensive category except doubles where they were 5th...The Rays set several franchise lows including on-base pct. (.320) and slugging percentage (.385) – 12th and 13th respectively in the AL and fanned a club record 1,116 times, 2nd most in the league...Rays were last in the AL with 121 home runs, 2nd fewest in their brief history behind the 111 they hit in 1998...Rays hit only 49 home runs after the All-Star Break in 74 games.

RAYS 3RD BEST WITH BASES LOADED—While the Rays finished 13th in the AL in batting – 23rd in the majors – with a .258 batting average, they were 3rd in the majors with a club record .352 (43-122) average with the bases loaded...Rays were led by Ben Grieve who batted .583 (7-12) in those situations, tied with Texas' Rafael Palmeiro for 3rd best in the AL and 2nd best in club history behind Fred McGriff's .615 (8-13) in 2000...Majors' Best With the Bases Loaded:

	AVG	AB	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	BB	SO	OBP	SLG

NEW HOME WIN MARK—Rays were 20-12 at home starting July 21 and 24-18 at home after June 23...Prior to June 24, the Rays had been 13-26 at home...At 37-44, the Rays set the club mark for most home wins...The Rays were 7-2 in interleague play at Tropicana Field, only 3 AL clubs have had a better home record in interleague play since the two leagues began playing in 1997....The Rays batted 17 points higher at home than on the road, the largest difference in the AL.

DEFENSE—The Rays comitted a club record 139 errors, 2nd most in the majors behind San Diego's 145...Rays miscues were the most by an AL team since 1998...The Rays allowed a major league high 106 unearned runs including 68 in the first 77 games (23-54)...Tampa Bay allowed only 38 in the last 85 games (39-46).

Devil Rays in 1999

- The Devil Rays suffered the most injuries in the major leagues in 1999. The Rays put 18 different players on the disabled list (22 total moves to the DL) after Opening Day. That number doesn't include INF Aaron Ledesma who dislocated his left thumb in the final spring training game and was out until May 12, or Randy Winn who was out from Sept 5 to Oct 2 with a sprained right ankle.
- All told, the 22 in-season moves accounted for 863 days on the DL. Fifteen of the Rays' 25-man Opening Day roster spent time on the disabled list including 8 of the 11 pitchers and four of the five pitchers in the club's season-opening rotation. Of the 13 pitchers who started a game for the Rays in 1999, eight spent time on the DL.
- On May 22, the Rays were 22-20, 2nd best record ever by a 2nd year expansion team, but an injury ridden, 16-day span, May 12-28, left the Rays reeling.

FLORIDA POWER WALKWAY

Leading the way through the main parking lot on the east side of the entrance to Tropicana Field is the Florida Power Walkway, the largest ceramic tile mosaic mural in the Southeast and one of the five largest in the country. It is 900 feet long by 30 feet wide and contains 1,849,091 tiles. The mosaic is an impressionistic design of the sun and sea, for which Florida is famous. The design is complete with sand, beach towels, water, fish, sharks, turtles, and devil rays. The walkway also features a sophisticated sound system that plays thematic music and play-by-play descriptions of the game in progress. Theatrical lighting in different shapes and configurations heightens the night-time experience. The sun is artfully depicted in a dramatic, arched, 23-foot high original steel structure that forms the gateway to the stadium.

ON THE CATWALK

There are four catwalks located above the playing surface at Tropicana Field. They are labeled the "A", "B", "C" and "D" rings with the lowest ring the "D" ring. The "D" ring ranges from 59 feet above the playing surface in CF to 121 feet behind home plate. The "C" ring ranges from 99 feet in CF to 146 behind home plate. The "B" ring ranges from 142 feet in CF to 173 feet behind home plate. And, the "A" ring ranges from 181 feet in CF to 194 feet behind home plate. In four seasons, 40 fair balls have struck the catwalks: 11 off the "B" ring, 22 off the "C" ring and 7 off the "D" ring. The catwalks were hit 13 times in the 2001 season alone. WHAT IS A DEVIL RAY?

Tampa Bay was granted a major league franchise on March 9, 1995. During the weeks surrounding that date, more than 7,000 suggested names were submitted by the people of Tampa Bay. Suggestions included such creative choices as Fruit Blossoms, Pteradactyls, Bigfeet, Backcrackers, Snowbirds and Toads.

The largest percentage of those suggestions included the name "Rays," an order of large, graceful fish that live primarily in the tropical waters off Florida's coast.

In a subsequent telephone contest in which more than 70,000 calls were received from Tampa Bay area residents, "Devil Rays" won out over "Manta Rays." Both names are actually used to describe the same fish. Devil Rays are the largest member of the Ray family measuring up to 23 feet long and weighing as much as 2,400 pounds. They are found in Florida waters: the Gulf of Mexico and along the Atlantic Coasts of the southern United States. They are massive, but gentle creatures, harmless to humans. The Devil Ray gets its name from the cephalic fins on the head that look like devil's horns. Although they are quite large, Devil Rays are known to leap from the water and can sail up to 20 feet in the air. Females of the species actually lay their eggs in flight and their offspring are known as "Pup Rays." Devil Rays are virtually impossible to keep in captivity.

ALL STAR BALLOTING

Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, selection of the All-Stars has shifted from fans to managers on several occasions. In 1933 and 1934, selection of the All-Star teams was up to the fans, who could vote for the All-Star through newspaper ads featuring official ballots.

From 1935 to 1946, each league's eight managers selected the participants while the All-Star team managers chose the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, tabulated by the Associated Press, was returned to the fans from 1947 to 1957. However, a case of ballot stuffing by Cincinnati fans in 1957 prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to make player selection the privilege of managers, players and coaches from 1958 to 1969.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned voting to the fans in 1970. Since then, All-Star Fan Balloting has developed into the largest voter participation program in the U.S. outside state and national elections.

Balloting will be conducted at Tropicana Field this season in May and June. Results will be announced the week before the All-Star Game scheduled for July 9 at Milwaukee's Miller Park.

- 2001 - Made his professional debut June 19 for Princeton vs. Danville and went 0-for-3, recorded his first career hit the next day and his first home run in his sixth game (21st AB), 6/25 @ Bluefield...Connected on two grand slams 8/12 @ Bristol and 8/20 @ Elizabethton, most by any Rays minor league player and one of five players in short-season leagues to hit more than one grand slam.
- 2000 - Greg "Toe" Nash originally was discovered by Rays' scout Benny Latino as a youth playing Little League in Gonzales, Louisiana, a town with a population of 16,000 off the Mississippi River. Since he did not attend high school his talents were unknown until he later emerged from the cane fields of Gonzales. He played in a league for 30-40 year old men who worked in the cane fields owned by Nash's uncle and former NBA player John "Hot Rod" Williams. Latino was able to witness Nash's raw talent and convinced the Rays to sign him to a contract last summer. Nash attended the 2000 Rays Instructional League to display the rest of the baseball world his impressive skills. Nash received the nickname "Toe" for his size 18 shoe, second largest in the Rays organization to OF Josh Hamilton who wears a size 19.

EJECTION-FEST

On August 29, 2000 at Tropicana Field, the Rays had 8 players/coaches ejected and the Boston Red Sox had none. It is believed to be the most lopsided ejection massacre in major league history. The previous high was thought to have occurred on July 9, 1929 when the Cincinnati Reds had 7 players ejected in their game against the New York Giants, who had none.

History of Professional Baseball in Tampa Bay

Although the 1998 Devil Rays played Florida's first regular season major league game outside of Miami, the league's roots in the Tampa Bay Area can be traced back some 88 years. In fact, more major league spring training games have been played in St. Petersburg than in any other city.

Major League Baseball's roots in Tampa Bay can be traced back to 1913 when the Chicago Cubs moved their spring training operation from New Orleans to Tampa. The following year the St. Louis Browns came to St. Petersburg for spring workouts.

Except for the years between 1942 and 1945 when wartime restrictions limited travel for spring training, major league baseball has had a presence in Tampa Bay ever since.

Even during the war years, the area found a way to keep the National Pastime alive. To fill the wartime void, Tampa fashioned the Inter-Social League in 1943. Crowds averaged several thousand in West Tampa and Ybor City to see players that included the fathers of future major leaguers Lou Piniella and Dave Magadan.

Nine teams have trained in St. Petersburg: the Boston Braves (1922-37), St. Louis Cardinals (1938-42; 1946-97), New York Yankees (1925-42; 1946-50; 1952-61), New York Giants (1951), New York Mets (1962-87), Baltimore Orioles (1993-95); St. Louis Browns (1914), Philadelphia Phillies (1915-18) and the Devil Rays.

Tampa has been the spring home of six major league clubs: Chicago Cubs (1913-16), Cincinnati Reds (1931-42; 1946-87), Boston Red Sox (1919), Detroit Tigers (1930), Washington Senators (1920-29), Chicago White Sox (1954-59) and the New York Yankees (1996-).

More than 70 Hall of Famers have trained in Tampa or St. Petersburg alone, not counting dozens of others who spent springs in Sarasota, Clearwater, Bradenton, and Lakeland.

Plant City, Dunedin, and Tarpon Springs have also been spring training hosts bringing the total number of major league teams who trained in Greater Tampa Bay to 19.

The first game between two major league teams in the area took place in 1914, as the Grapefruit League was established, in which teams played a five-week schedule of exhibition games. On March 26 of that year, at Plant Field on the campus of the University of Tampa, the host Chicago Cubs edged the Browns, 3-2, despite making six errors.

The next day, the two teams met at Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Petersburg and the result was the same, a 3-2 Cubs win. James Leslie (Hippo) Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Cubs as an estimated 4,000 looked on.

Minor League Baseball began in Tampa Bay in 1919, when Tampa became a charter member of the Class D Florida State League. After finishing dead last the first year, Tampa went 89-28 in 1920, a .745 winning percentage, still the best in FSL history. It was that year that the St. Petersburg Saints entered the FSL. By 1922, the Saints had won a FSL crown of their own, the first of eight they would win, most in league history.

The teams from St. Petersburg and Tampa alone have played more than 13,000 minor league games. Add Dunedin, Clearwater and Lakeland and the number soars to 21,000.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Robeto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to MLB. A local panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services and made up of local community representatives will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Curt Schilling (2001), Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

St. Petersburg, FL—Hall of Famers Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Al Lopez and Monte Irvin threw out the ceremonial first pitches and minutes later, at 5:08 p.m. on March 31, 1998, major league baseball was born in Tampa Bay as Wilson Alvarez delivered a ball to Detroit's leadoff hitter Brian Hunter. Alvarez retired the Tigers 1-2-3 in the first inning, then 9 of the next 13 batters hit safely. The Rays fell behind 11-0 in the 5th inning before Wade Boggs hit a 2-run homer off Justin Thompson in the 6th to account for the first two runs in Devil Rays' history. Tampa Bay rallied for four runs in the 9th and left the tying run in the on-deck circle when Paul Sorrento struck out to end the game. Every starter on both sides hit safely except Rays' LF Mike Kelly. Tampa native Luis Gonzalez hit the first home run at Tropicana Field and added a single and double.

Devil Rays First Win – April 1, 1998

St. Petersburg, FL— April First, but it was no joke, the Devil Rays won their first game. In game #2 of the season opening series, the Rays rallied from a 3-0, first inning deficit and banged out 18 hits on their way to an 11-8 victory. Rookie Rolando Arrojo earned the win in his major league debut and Fred McGriff had three run scoring hits including a 2-run single in the Rays' decisive 4-run 8th inning. The Rays batted around in the 4th and 8th innings (they batted around 4 times in the 3-game series). Two-out, RBI singles by Wade Boggs and McGriff were the big hits in the 4th inning in which the Rays entered trailing 3-2. The Rays got a hit in every inning except the 5th.

Rays on TV

Dewayne Staats

Dewayne Staats is entering his 26th season broadcasting major league baseball and his fifth with the Devil Rays. Before joining the Rays, he spent three years calling play-by-play for ESPN in a variety of sports, including major league baseball and NCAA baseball, basketball and football. He began his major league play-by-play career as the radio and TV voice of the Houston Astros from 1977-84, then called radio and TV action for the Chicago Cubs from 1985-89. He was the lead play-by-play announcer for the New York Yankees games carried by the MSG-TV network from 1990-94, and spent the 1994 and 1995 seasons calling the action for The Baseball Network (ABC/NBC). Staats began his career as a sports reporter for WSIE Radio while a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and began his baseball career as the radio voice of the Oklahoma City 89ers (1973-74). A 1975 graduate of SIU-Edwardsville, Dewayne earned Distinguished Alumnus-of-the-Year honors in 1987. He and his wife, Demetra (Dee), have two daughters, Stephanie (1-11-78) and Alexandra (1-11-84).

Joe Magrane

Joe Magrane returns as television color analyst for the Rays in 2001, his fifth with the club. Last season Magrane appeared on Fox network's broadcasts on several occasions. In September 2000, Joe served as color analyst for NBC's Olympic baseball coverage in Sydney, Australia. Before coming to the Rays, the 10-year major league veteran worked as an analyst on regional ESPN major league games in 1997 and worked with Devil Rays play-by-play man Dewayne Staats on ESPN's coverage of the College World Series. An All-America selection at the University of Arizona in 1985, Magrane compiled a 56-67 major league record with the St. Louis Cardinals (1987-93), California Angels (1993-95), and Chicago White Sox (1996). He finished third in the 1987 N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year voting, helping lead the Cardinals to the World Series. He won the ERA title in 1988 while with the Cards (2.18) and the following year won 18 games, placing third in the N.L. Cy Young voting. His nephew, Jim, was Rays minor league pitcher of the year last season at Class A Charleston. He and his wife, Renee, have two daughters, Shannon and Sophia.

Todd Kalas

Todd enters his fifth season broadcasting with the Rays and 10th in the major leagues. Kalas hosts the Rays television pre-game show, "Devil Rays on Deck," seen on Fox Sports Net. In addition, Kalas has filled in with play-by-play on both the Rays' television and radio networks. Prior to joining the Rays, Kalas worked on the radio broadcast team of the New York Mets (1992-1993) and the television broadcast team of the Philadelphia Phillies (1994-1996). After graduating with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University in 1987, he announced University of Delaware football and basketball games. In 1989, he moved to the Tampa Bay area as sports director at Vision Cable in Clearwater before beginning his career in baseball with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991.

In the off-season, he does freelance work for Fox Sports Net, ESPN and ESPN2. Todd is the son of longtime Phillies broadcaster, Harry Kalas, a 2002 Hall of Fame inductee.

Kalas is single and resides in Largo, Fla.

Rays on Radio

Paul Olden

Paul Olden, a 14-year major league baseball broadcasting veteran, returns to the Devil Rays' radio team in 2001. Named to the post on September 23, 1997, Olden came to Tampa Bay after calling college football play-by-play for Fox Sports Net in '97. From 1994-96, he was the play-by-play voice of the New York Yankees on WPIX-TV, including the Yankees' World Championship season of 1996. He earned his first big-league job as the play-by-play voice of the Cleveland Indians from 1988-89, then served in the same capacity for the California Angels in 1991, replacing Joe Torre. Paul earned a New York Emmy Award for best local sports coverage in 1993, and for the last nine years, he has served as the public address announcer at the Super Bowl, including the 2001 game in Tampa. Olden was born in Chicago and grew up in Los Angeles listening to legendary broadcasters such as Vin Scully, Chick Hearn, and Dick Enberg. Olden is single and lives in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Charlie Slowes joins Paul Olden in returning as the first play-by-play team in Devil Rays history. Prior to joining the Rays, Slowes spent 11 years calling the play-by-play action for the Washington Bullets. He spent parts or all of four NBA off-seasons as the television and radio voice of the Tidewater Tides (1986, 1988, 1991, 1992) of the AAA International League. Slowes gained network experience by calling a regional broadcast of the NBC Sports Game of the Week in 1989 and by calling play-by-play on the CBS Radio Game of the Week in 1985. He graduated from Fordham University with a degree in communications in 1983. Charlie and his wife, Christina, have two boys, Jimmy (4-6-94) and Alex (10-11-97) and reside in Palm Harbor, Fla.

Tropicana Field

Tropicana Field, home of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, closed its doors in October 1996 for a 17-month, $85 million facelift that transformed the facility from functional to intriguingly innovative, incorporating baseball traditions throughout the dining, shopping and entertainment complex while adding 319,000 square feet of space.

Originally named the Florida Suncoast Dome and then the ThunderDome, Tropicana Field's 1.1 million square feet include unique design features and fan amenities found nowhere else in the major leagues.

- Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature artificial turf and all-dirt base paths. It features the new natural look FieldTurf (see below). Only four other artificial turf ballparks have ever featured all-dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966–1971); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971; Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s; and, most recently, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970–1976). Chicago's Comiskey Park had all-dirt base paths with an artificial turf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s.
- Tropicana Field became the first major league baseball facility to install FieldTurf. In March 2000, the revolutionary new synthetic grass, FieldTurf was installed at Tropicana Field and on April 7 the first professional baseball game was played on the new surface when the Rays hosted the Cleveland Indians in their home opener. FieldTurf combines blades of artificial grass with a specially patented infill mixture of sand and ground rubber. The ground rubber is a recycled material made from used NIKE athletic shoes. The infill surrounds each FieldTurf fibre like natural earth holds a blade of grass and provides a non-compactible, resilient, natural earth feel.
- In keeping with baseball's traditions, the bullpens were relocated after the 1998 season to the field, giving fans a clear view of activity before and during games. The Devil Rays bullpen is located along the right field line, while the visitors bullpen is located along the left field line.
- Ebbets Field was an influence for Tropicana Field in two ways—one by coincidence, the other by design. Tropicana Field's asymmetrical outfield dimensions closely follow those of the Brooklyn Dodgers' old home, a fact that became evident only after those measurements had been determined. Conversely, Tropicana Field's grand, eight-story-high rotunda entrance is designed from the very blueprints used for the rotunda at Ebbets Field, built in 1913.
- Fans can enter the rotunda by following a 900-foot, tropical-theme, ceramic mosaic walkway. Called SunSations, The Florida Power Walkway is the largest outdoor ceramic mural in Florida and one of the five largest in the United States. Made with 1,849,091 brightly colored 1x1-inch tiles, it depicts the sun, sea and beach.
- Tropicana Field features the world's second-largest cable-supported domed roof (Georgia Dome is the largest). It's made of six acres of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass and it virtually supports itself with 180 miles of cables connected by struts. Opposing forces of tension and compression keep the roof in an arc. Tropicana Field's roof is slanted at a 6.5 degree angle, dropping from 225 feet above second base to 85 feet at the center field wall. The slanted roof reduced the overall construction costs and decreased the volume of air under the dome by 16.8 million cubic feet. Accordingly, that reduced the amount of air that requires climate control treatment. It is built to withstand wind of up to 115 miles per hour.

Tropicana Field History

The original Florida Suncoast Dome was opened to the public on March 3, 1990, at a cost of $138 million. It became the ThunderDome in 1993 with the arrival of the area's National Hockey League expansion franchise, the Tampa Bay Lightning. It was renamed Tropicana Field on Oct. 4, 1996

The facility has set attendance records in a number of sports. During their three seasons playing in the building, the Lightning established the top 20 attendance marks in NHL history. On April 23, 1996, a crowd of 28,183 attended Game Four of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals between the Lightning and the Philadelphia Flyers—the largest single-game attendance figure in NHL history.

The Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm set all its records while playing in the facility, including the largest single-game record of 28,746. In 1990, Davis Cup tennis was played at the dome, with a record crowd of 53,150 attending the three-day event. Also in 1990, 25,710 NBA fans saw the Chicago Bulls play an exhibition game against the Seattle Supersonics in what was then the largest crowd ever to attend a basketball game in the state of Florida. That figure was surpassed first by the 26,102 who attended the 1994 first-round NCAA Regionals, then again on March 20 and 22, 1998, when sellout crowds of 40,589—a record for a non-Final Four game— watched the NCAA Regional and semifinal games featuring Syracuse, UCLA, Duke and Kentucky. The 1999 Final Four, featuring Duke, Ohio State, Michigan State and eventual-champion Connecticut, drew capacity crowds of 40,632 and 39,113 on March 27 and 29. The largest crowd to date—47,150—appeared at the Aug. 11, 1990, concert featuring The New Kids on the Block.

FieldTurf combines blades of artificial grass with a specially patented infill mixture of sand and ground rubber. The ground rubber is a recycled material made from used NIKE athletic shoes. It took 500 tons of clay shipped in from Tennessee to build the base paths. Called "Mar Mix," the infield dirt is a carefully blended mixture of 54 percent sand, 32 percent clay and 14 percent silt. Another type of clay, Blue Gumbo, is used for the pitcher's mound and batter's box.
